

Privacy Policy

Your right to privacy and security is very important to us at Maximum Vacation Homes. We recognize that when you choose to provide us with details about yourself and your vacation rental, you trust us to act in a responsible manner. We believe this data should only be used to help us provide you with a better vacation and service, which is why we have put a policy in place to protect your personal information. Below is a summary of our policy.

Personal Information

What personal information do we collect? In general, when you visit our website, you remain anonymous. When placing a reservation, however, we will ask for personal details such as billing address, credit card information, and other pertinent contact information, such as your phone number or e-mail address. This is necessary in order to secure your rental vacation home booking, as well as help us to provide a maximum service for you.

You can have full confidence in our secure online system, as well as with Maximum Vacation Homes, that we will not provide any of your personal information to other companies or individuals without your permission.

Securing your Privacy

We will protect the quality and integrity of your personal identifiable information. We have implemented appropriate technical and managerial procedures to maintain a high level of security. We will make a sincere effort to respond to your requests to correct personal information inaccuracies in a timely manner.

We will take appropriate steps to protect your privacy. Whenever you provide sensitive information (i.e. a credit card number to make a purchase), we will take every reasonable step to protect your information, such as encrypting your card number. We will also take reasonable security measures to protect your personal details in storage. Credit card numbers are used only for payment processing and are not retained for marketing purposes.

Your personal data will only be used by Maximum Vacation Homes to finalize your rental booking. However, we may need to provide your name and delivery address to third parties that we use for the purposes of delivering specific services to you (e.g., event tickets, customer support, or a shipping company, if you have asked us to send something to you).

Our website may provide links to third party sites. Since we do not control these websites, we encourage you to review the privacy policies of these third party websites.

We will also disclose personal information when required by law, in response to any demand by law enforcement or other appropriate Government authorities, or if the personal information is pertinent in a legal processing or court action.

Changes in our Privacy Policy

You may ask if there are ever changes in our privacy policy. From time to time, we may need to change or update our privacy policy. If the policy has changes, this page will be updated. You will not be provided with any other notice of such changes. Please check this page to see if there have been any recent changes.
